BASE BALL.

A Splendid Came Between the Leaders, of this City-The Strangers Win by a Score of 2 to 0.

One of the finest and surely the hardest contested games of base ball witnessed here was played yesterday afternoon on the grounds at the Athletic park, between the Leader Base Ball club, of Kingston, N. Y., Leader Base Ball club, of this city. The Na-and the Nationals, of this city. The Nationals went to the bat and Joy, Sturgis Ewell were marched out in quick order.

At this point in the game the Kingston boys objected to the umpire's decisions, and Mr. Ryan, who filled that thankless position, gave way to Mr. Adams, of the Alexandria Base Ball club, who umpired the game to its close very satisfactorily to all concerned. The Leaders clutched the willow, but the Messrs. G. and R. Johnston and W. Dugan had to succumb to McKee's terrific manner of fring in the lifth sphere.

The Nationals then assumed a stern cast of countenance, which plainly said something must be done—but it wasn't, for Evers, Mc-Kee, and Groves died the same death as their three opponents who had just preceded them.

In this inning a beautiful double play was made by the stort stop, first, and second base-men of the Leaders, which brought them long and loud applauso. Messrs. Hassett, Shay, and E. Dugan, of the Leaders, and McAuley, Barclay, and Joy, of the Nationals, each drew a blank in the great but somewhat each drew a blank in the great but somewhat doubtful lottery of the diamond field.

Up to this point of the game there was some excellent playing on both sides. The balls were pounded for all they were worth, but somehow or other the basemen or fielders would always place an insurmountable obstacle in the way. The Leaders again tried their luck, but fate was against them—they going out in one, two, three order. The Nationals tried theirs, and Evers reached the third has on errors, but owing to his amthe third bag on errors, but owing to his am-bition overcoming his prudence, and the go-ing out in succession of Sturgis, Yewell, and ing out in succession of Stargis, Yewell, and McKee, he was stranded on that lonely beach, the third base. From this time until the first half of the ninth inning was reached, the boys on both sides vied with the other to see who would gain the goose egg. All those who entered for prize were awarded the "mead of praise which consisted of the fifteenth letter of the alphabet.

The Leaders had the final chance and went to the bat, saying, "the girls of Kingston are betting on us," and the fair ones of the far away city of the north won, too, if they did bet, for the Leaders exhibited their strength bet, for the Leaders exhibited their strength at this stage of the game by their terrific batting. R. Johnston was goose egged before he had time to say grace, but Shay went to the bat and by a beautiful strike brought in Allen and W. Dugan, who were on bases. This ended the game. Over 300 people witnessed it. The following is the score:

Attorney Riddle has submitted an opinion in reference to taxation of the Columbia hospital property, in which he says: The language of the charter exempts its property from all assessments for general or special tax while it is the owner of it. That act does not relieve it of the servitude of taxes, general or special, which had already accrued. These become liens upon the property, and may be enforced against the property itself, in the hands of the hospital. I do not think they should be enforced against property the title of which is in the United States without some legislation by congress. Although I do not think a conveyance to the in reference to taxation of the Columbia hos-Although I do not think a conveyance to the United States strips it of the lien, I have grave doubts whether the lien can be enforced. I would not attempt it without bet-ter advice, if the title is in the general gov-ernment. For all general taxes due before March 23, 1873, the hospital is liable; also, for all special assessments before then due The bill for special taxes dated March 2 1873, says that interest is to date from February 1, 1873. If that is correct this assessment was a charge on the property when the title accrued to the hospital, and the district should have it from that corporation.

THE COMING FALL RACES.

Preparations at the Ivy City Track for Visiting Flyers--Meeting of the Jockey

The sporting fraternity are anxiously anticipating the opening of the fall meeting of the National Jockey club, which event will begin at Ivy City Oct. 16. Already the work of preparing the track, improving the grounds and stands generally, and of placing the stables in proper order for the reception of visiting flyers, has commenced, and, to use the words of the club secretary, Mr. H. D. McIntyre, the meeting promises to be the biggest thing district lovers of turf sports ever witnessed hereabouts.

All the entries for the meeting have been made, as heretofore published in THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, but up to yesterday the only arrivals at the track were the horses included in the stable of Davis & Hall These animals are the bay mare Ella Warfield by War Dance, bay colt by Leader, bay field by War Dance, bay colt by Leader, bay gelding by Leader, brown filly Rosiere by Dickens, and bay gelding by Fadladeen. The stables of Oden Bowie, including Crickmore, Twist, My Mollie, Lagatee, Bessie, Empress, Nellie, Analostan, Fairview, and Castor, are expected to arrive early next week, and will be rapidly followed by Lorillard's celebrated racers and the stables of other noted turfmen.
